

Principles for the English Language Proficiency Test for Postgraduate Students at the German-Jordanian University

Article (1): These are called the "Principles for the English Language Proficiency Test for Postgraduate Students at the German-Jordanian University." These will be applied to starting the academic year 2017/2018.

Article (2): The English Language Proficiency Test is held at the German-Jordanian University and should be equivalent to international exams such as the TOEFL or IELTS.

Article (3): This exam is given only for those wishing to enroll in postgraduate programs at the German-Jordanian University.

Article (4): A committee shall be set up to formulate questions and supervise the holding of the exam.

Article (5): The Passy grade in the English Language Proficiency Test shall be based on the following table as provided by the Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research:

Master Program	Mark
Engineering in all specialties	not less than 75%
MBA and Enterprise Systems Engineering	not less than 65%
Logistics Management	not less than 50%

Article (6): The University shall collect (55) fifty-five Dinar fees for the examination.

Article (7): A financial reward shall be paid to the organizers and supervisors of the exam according to the regulations of the University.

Article (8): The Deans Council shall decide on any issues arising in the application of these principles.