

Study Group Mobility 2021 Call for applications

We are delighted to inform you that the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) via Hochschule Magdeburg-Stendal will be providing a financial support for a joint study group project in 2021. This project between a study group of 10 GJU students together with 10 students from a German partner university under the supervision of a Professor from GJU and the German university will start online and finish with a visit of one group to either Germany or Jordan to finalize and present their project outcome.

What is funded?

- 10 flight tickets to Jordan OR Germany per study group including airport arrival and departure pickups with six overnight stays for 10 people (plus one professor) at the country visited

Who can apply?

- All interested study groups from our partner universities who would like to implement an innovative, practical-oriented joint project with a topic aligned towards the GJU, Jordan or any other GJU Applied Science approach
- Open to any field of study

How to apply?

- If you have already formed a project group, found a partner and defined a topic, please fill out the application form and send it directly to the following email address:
laura.schergaut@gju.edu.jo
- If you wish to apply, but are missing a German/Jordanian partner, please contact the International Office or our partner universities for help

The deadline to apply for this project is March 31st, 2021.

If you are interested in the project and would like to clarify further questions, please contact Laura Schergaut (International Office):
