Advanced Course in Low Vision Rehabilitation
6 to 20 of January 2018

Place: GJU Vision Training Center, Amman , Jordan.

Participants: four participants who passed the intermediate course (online).

Duration: 2 weeks, 5 days per week (Saturday to Wednesday), 40 contact hours.

Language: English and/or Arabic.

Trainers:

- Maisaa Masoud, Lecturer and clinician, BSc in Optometry, MSc in Vision Rehabilitation.
- Sami Shublaq, Lecturer and clinician, BSc in Optometry, MSc in Vision Rehabilitation.
- Yosur Qutishat, Lecturer and clinician, BSc in Occupational therapy, MSc in Vision Rehabilitation.

Content:

- Comprehensive low vision assessment with simulation glasses including recommendation for devices using role play (Children & Adult cases)
- Measuring visual acuity with BRVT program on computer
- Decide about magnification and how to choose the appropriate visual aids.
- Training with optical aids
- Training on electronic devices like CCTV & Monomouse
- Visual training including eccentric viewing
- Environmental adaptations (easy solutions)
- Case studies for patients with low vision
- Observation for clinical cases emphasizing in history taking, assessment, magnification, choosing the appropriate devices, training and advices. Followed by discussion, debriefing and lessons learned.

Resources available on site:

- Books, articles and videos from the VTC library.
- Low vision clinic and observation room (with a one-way mirror and headphones).

Certificate: Upon completion of the course requirements, each participant will receive a certificate recognized by the Jordanian Ministry of Higher Education.

Cost: 400 JODs per person.