CALL FOR APPLICATION FOR SCHOLARSHIPS.

The German Jordanian University in Amman launches a new programme

Social Work “Migration and Refugees”.

This Professional Diploma Programme will have a duration of 5 months (1 term).

For the coming term (October 2016 – February 2017) the DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) offers up to 15 scholarships

- for Jordanians and

- for refugees in Jordan from Syria and other countries.

Candidates must be holders of a Bachelor’s degree or of a two year diploma degree in social work, special education, social science, or other related disciplines.

The Professional Diploma Programme will be taught in English. A language competency exam will be administered by the GJU, if candidates do not have a valid TOEFEL or ILTS certificate.

Subjects and modules to be treated during the programme:

- Mental Health and Psychosocial Support to Refugees
- Administration and Coordination of Humanitarian Systems and Sustainable Transition Building
- Social Work with Minors and Women in the Country of Origin or Transit
- Human Rights and Human Rights Education in the Arab Context
- Protracted Displacement, Durable Solutions and Entrepreneurship
- Conducting research with refugees
- Field Training Internship
Venue:

GJU-building in Amman.

Scholarships:

The scholarships will cover the study fees and are expected to pay a living allowance.

The selection of candidates will be based on a competitive procedure.

If you are eligible for this scholarship, please send an email containing your personal data in which you express your interest and describe your motivation and your previous qualifications.

Send this email message to the contact address mentioned below.

Subject to change!

Deadline:

15th September 2016.

For further information please visit our website www.gju.edu.jo/

or send an email to: social-work @gju.edu.jo