Article 9	Despite what was mentioned in Article (8) of these instructions, and regardless of the order of the researchers shown on the research derived from a master's thesis or doctoral dissertation, the student is considered a principal investigator, and the rest of the researchers are arranged accordingly, for the purposes of applying these instructions.
Article 10	An additional points are calculated for the faculty member for his performance in research and scientific and creative production in the event of obtaining financial support for research projects supported from outside the university at the rate of two (2) points for every five thousand Jordanian dinars from the share of the research team from the university from the value of the support if he/she is a principle investigator in the research team from the university and by one point for every five thousand Jordanian dinars from the share of the research team from the university from the value of the support divided by the number of participating researchers from the university if he/she is a research associate.
Measuring the effectiveness of performance in teaching and learning production
Article 11	A. The teaching performance and learning production points of the faculty member are calculated according to the form approved by the Council for this purpose and as the following: Number of points = 0.5 x (weighted average - 50) B. The weighted average is calculated for students evaluation participating in courses taught by the faculty member during the last two academic years before applying for promotion or transfer, with no less than four semesters except summer semesters, and the committee may introduce more semesters if the total number of students participating in the evaluation is less than 50 participants, or to recommend the appropriate measure. C. For the purposes of calculating the weighted average in paragraph (B) of this Article, laboratory courses, projects, theses, field training or their equivalent are excluded. D. The Council, based on recommendation by the Committee, may review and develop the measurement methodology of performance in teaching and learning production.
Article 12	Additional pointes are calculated for the faculty member for his/her performance in teaching and learning production as follows: A. Ten (10) points for each integrated e-course designed and produced by the asynchronous learning method after being evaluated by the

	department and school councils of the course and approved by the Center for E-Learning and Academic Performance Improvement at the university and the Council. B. Ten (10) points if he/she is responsible for developing and implementing an academic course that has been linked to an international professional certificate within the continuing professional development track, provided that this is approved by the Council based on a recommendation from the department and the school councils and the study plan committee. C. Two (2) points If he/she participates in the development or application of an academic course that has been linked to an international professional certificate within the continuous professional development track, provided that this is approved by the Council based on a recommendation from the department and the school councils and the study plan committee. D. Two (2) points if an applied dimension is introduced in an academic course such as adopting computer applications, using modern technology, or learning through research, provided that the development is documented in the course plan and approved by the department and the school councils. E. Two (2) points for each training program passed in the field of learning, teaching and academic development, with a maximum of ten (10) points, provided that the program is approved by the E-Learning and Academic Improvement Center at the university.

Foundations for the Preparations of Contracts for Employees at the German Jordanian University

These bases of reference shall be cited as (Foundations for the Preparation of Contracts of Employees at the German Jordan University) and shall be effective as of the date of the Deans Council’s Decision no. 40/2014 dated 10/11/2014.

First: Academic Staff Contracts:

A-	The start and end date of contracts: The Deans Council issues the decision pertaining to the name of the academic staff member, rank, and salary as per the classification ladder followed and based on a recommendation from the Human Resources Department where the maximum contract period is one year (12 months) and in accordance with the council’s decision.
B-	It is permissible for the contract to exceed one year only in special cases deemed necessary for the benefit of the university.
C-	The contract must have specified start and end dates stated at the end of the contract for example “End of 11/9/2013” where the contract must also include the date of birth.
D-	The start and end dates of contracts for academic staff member shall be as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) An academic staff member appointed by the university and is eligible for contract renewal: The start of the contract date shall be effective upon the end of the previous contract date for a period of one year regardless of the start of the next academic year. For example the contract ends on 10/9/2013 where the next contract starts on 11/9/2013 for a period of a maximum of one year. 2) An academic staff member who is about to get appointed directly by the university and not recruited from another public university: The start and end date of the contract is linked to the start and end date of the academic year stipulated by the Deans Council of that year. 3) An academic staff member delegated or on loan from another university shall be appointed without a contract, in which the start and end of his or her appointment is based on the official letter of approval regarding his or her delegation or loan from his or her original university. 4) In case an academic staff member starts teaching right after the start of the first academic year, his or her contract shall start as of the start date of his or her work directly and shall

	end by the end of the academic year regardless whether he or she completes 12 months. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5) An academic staff member or full-time lecturer appointed at the beginning of the second semester of the academic year, the start of his or her contract shall be at the beginning of the second semester and shall end at the end of the academic year. 6) The vacation for an academic staff member or full-time lecturer who teaches one semester shall be five weeks and must be mentioned in the contract. 7) The salary or raises shall be calculated by the Human Resources Department as accustomed and then sent to the Council Affairs Department for a decision to be issued by the Deans Council where the rank and salary are both specified. 8) In case an academic staff member or full-time lecturer who completed his or her scholarship dispatch and starts teaching in the summer semester shall not be eligible for a vacation for the period of his or her work in the summer semester and shall be assigned courses for that semester with no financial reward for his overtime.
Note: Paragraph (4) from Article (D) was amended in accordance with the Deans Council decision no.139/2015 dated 20/4/2015 and is as follows: -The contracts of academic staff members appointed prior to the decision shall remain the same with not changes to the dates in which the will be prepared for one years as accustomed. -The foundations pertaining to the unified contracts shall be implemented to those appointed thereon in which his or her contracts shall start as of the first semester of the academic years of 2015/2016.
E-	Cases of End of Service: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The unwillingness of the two parties to renew the contract: The end of service date is the end date of the contract where that day is calculated with all its dues where social security is calculated as of the end of the contract date with the inclusion of due vacations. 2. The resignations of the second party (academic staff member) before the end of the contract: In this case, the penalty condition and the provisions of the regulation shall be implemented where the date of resignation is not calculated with a salary and the academic staff member is no longer listed in the social security as of the date of resignation.

	For example if the date of resignation is 1/9/2013, then the salary is paid for the end of 31/8/2013 with no end of service reward. 3. If the second party leaves his or her work during the contract period, then the provisions of the contract and regulation shall be implemented.
F-	The contract must include all rights and duties clearly. Some of the important rights are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Deserved vacations. 2) End of service reward in case of eligibility and methods of calculating it, savings, and other funds. 3) The right to receive benefits or not.
G-	- Contract Types: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) An academic staff member contract appointed based on his or her qualifications and experiences with a base salary and deserved raises as per the salary ladder. Moreover, all his or her rights are completely granted as per the academic commission regulation followed by the university. 2) A full-time lecturer contract where all his or her rights and duties are specified as per the contract with an overall salary deducted and specified by the Deans Council. Furthermore, he or she is excluded from benefiting from all the funds, especially the end of service reward fund as followed by all the universities. As for the lectures with an academic rank, they are appointed as full-time lecturer with a base salary (specified according to the rank). 3) A partial contract like the ones for German lecturers who teach less than 21 hours are excluded from benefiting from the all the funds, especially the end of service reward fund, and are eligible for social security as per the social security law where those who don't wish to be listed in the social security are therefore appointed on a reward paid to them at the end of the academic semester. Hence, the monthly salary shall be calculated as follows: <table border="1" data-bbox="523 1637 1374 1944"> <thead> <tr> <th rowspan="2">Number of Credit Hours</th> <th colspan="2">Reward Value/Dinar</th> </tr> <tr> <th>Master's Holders</th> <th>Bachelor Holders</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>21 hours</td> <td>1000</td> <td>769</td> </tr> <tr> <td>18 hours</td> <td>860</td> <td>662</td> </tr> <tr> <td>15 hours</td> <td>720</td> <td>555</td> </tr> <tr> <td>12 hours</td> <td>580</td> <td>448</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> The payment of these salaries shall be applied to lecturers who are appointed by the German Language Center regardless of the nationality.	Number of Credit Hours	Reward Value/Dinar		Master's Holders	Bachelor Holders	21 hours	1000	769	18 hours	860	662	15 hours	720	555	12 hours	580	448
Number of Credit Hours	Reward Value/Dinar
	Master's Holders	Bachelor Holders
21 hours	1000	769
18 hours	860	662
15 hours	720	555

	As for the language teachers, they are paid benefits by a percentage of the number of hours taught by each to the number of hours of a full-time lecturer with a full teaching load.
H-	The vacations of academic staff members: each academic staff member must fill out a vacation request during the summer semester in order for the Human Resources Department to cross-check the vacations, especially that the academic years for the university are different. The vacations shall be as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) An academic staff member that teaches in both the first and second semesters of the academic year deserves one week vacation between the semesters and (10) weeks in the summer semester. 2) An academic staff member who teaches one semester in the academic year deserves (5) weeks of vacation in the summer semester. 3) In special cases, an academic staff member who teaches one semesters and part of the second semester then his or her vacation is calculated in approximation of teaching two whole semesters. 4) An academic staff member or a full-time lecturer who has not completed his or her papers is appointed on a reward where his or her service is not calculated for any purpose and will not receive a vacation for that period.
I-	Benefits: It should be clear in the contract that the following categories shall not benefit from the international program: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Germans who receive salaries from DAAD. 2. Academic staff members over 70 years old. 3. Academic staff members on scientific research leave and get paid benefits from their original universities.

Article (3)	A. A fund called (the housing fund for workers at the German Jordanian University) shall be established at the university. It has a legal personality with financial and administrative independence. It has in this capacity to undertake all legal actions necessary to achieve its goals, including the possession of movable and immovable funds and disposing of them; it has the right to borrow and accept gifts, grants and donations and has litigation rights. B. The president shall represent the fund with others.
Article (4)	The fund aims at: A. Granting loans to subscribers in the fund for housing purposes. B. Establishing housing projects and providing ownership to the subscribers by selling or renting them; and buying and selling real estate, housing and land for housing purposes in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

Article (5)	A. The fund is managed by a committee called (Fund Management Committee) headed by the president and the membership of seven university employees named by the council for a renewable two-year term. B. The committee elects from its members a vice-president who will take his place in his absence. C. The committee chairman nominates from the university employees a secretary to the committee who calls for its meetings, records its sessions minutes and decisions, saves its records and files, and does any other work assigned to him/her by the committee or the president in relation to the fund's work.
Article (6)	The committee shall assume the following duties and powers: A. Preparing the general policy of the fund and laying down the necessary plans and programs for its implementation. B. Buying real estate and lands, establishing buildings on them, developing them, leasing and owning them for subscribers in the fund, or leasing them to any of the university employees. C. Studying loan applications and making decisions regarding them. D. Investing the money of the fund in a manner approved by the board and in a manner that achieves the interest of the fund and develops its money. E. Appointing one or more chartered accountants to audit the fund accounts. F. Preparing the draft budget and submitting it to the council for approval. G. Considering any other matters related to the fund's business that the president assigns to it.
Article (7)	The committee shall meet at least once a month at the invitation of the chairman or his deputy in his absence. The quorum for its meetings is formed with the attendance of at least five of its members, provided that among them is the chairman or his deputy. Its decisions are taken by the majority of the votes of its members.
Article (8)	The financial resources of the fund consist of the following:

	a. Affiliation allowance for membership in the Fund as decided by the committee. B. Monthly subscriptions deducted from subscribers' salaries. C. Loans obtained by the Fund from any financing source approved by the Board. D. Grants and donations received by the Council with the approval of the committee. E. The benefits of loans granted by the Fund to subscribers. F. Returns on investment of Fund money.
Article (9)	A. Participation in the fund is optional for university employees. The financial department at the university deducts the monthly subscription from the member's salary at a rate of (4%) of his total salary subject to social security, provided that the contributions are transferred monthly to the fund. B. The member has the right to stop his participation in the fund if it does not owe him any amount and to recover the contributions he paid to the fund in accordance with the instructions issued by the board for this purpose. It is not permissible in any case to terminate the subscription as long as the subscriber owes the fund any amount.
Article (10)	The participant applying for a loan must meet the following conditions: A. Having the Jordanian nationality. B. Being an employee in actual service at the university when granting the loan. C. Having served at least three consecutive years of service at the university. D. Planning to buy a ready-made house or setting up a residence on a piece of land that he fully owns or on a surface that he fully owns within the organization. E. Not having benefited from the housing fund at any other university.
Article (11)	A. The maximum loan amount shall be equal to four times the borrower's annual net salary, provided that it does not exceed the amount decided by the board.

	B. It is not permissible for the borrower to use the loan or any part of it for purposes other than those for which it has been allocated. The committee must take all the procedures it deems appropriate to ensure that the borrower adheres to the terms and conditions for using the loan and that he has spent its full value on those ends or purposes. In the event of any violation of the conditions, the fund stops disbursing the payment or the remaining payments from the loan, and the amounts paid from it are considered a payable debt that must be paid in full without the need for notification.
Article (12)	The priority of obtaining the loan for the subscriber is determined according to the principles approved by the Board according to the instructions issued for this purpose based on the committee's recommendation, including determining the interest that will be due on the loan and the period of repayment.
Article (13)	The borrower shall abide by the following: A. Providing a mortgage for the piece of land or the surface that he fully owns and what is built on any of them as a security for the loan in the name and for the benefit of the fund, as a first-degree mortgage. B. Authorizing the financial department at the university to deduct the due monthly installments from his salary until the full payment of the loan, including the interest on the loan. C. Adding the mortgage transaction fees and any other bank commissions due on the mortgage transaction; these are added to the actual cost of the loan.
Article (14)	The committee provides insurance on the life of the borrower and on the property that he built with the loan he obtained from the fund against the dangers of fire, earthquakes, and drifts at an insurance company, with no less than the value of the loan for the purpose of repaying it in the event of death or occurrence of the insured risk, provided that the due insurance premiums and the cost of the mortgage transaction are added to the loan installments and are considered part of the actual cost of the loan.

Article (15)	A. After approval, the loan is disbursed if its purpose is to build a residence for the borrower as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. (20%) of the loan amount upon presentation of the land registration document, the building plan, and the construction permit. 2. (20%) of the loan amount after completing the construction of the building rules and foundations. 3. (20%) of the loan amount after completing the building structure and before pouring the roof. 4. (40%) after completing the roof of the house to complete preparing it for housing. B. If the purpose of the loan is to buy a ready-made housing for the borrower, the loan amount will be paid to him in full, provided that the home is mortgaged with a first-class security mortgage at the competent registration department in the name and for the benefit of the fund.
Article (16)	A. The loan is repaid in monthly installments to which the interest will be added, including the interest of the grace period, insurance premiums, and any other expenses paid for the purposes of the loan service within a period determined by the committee in accordance with instructions issued for this purpose, provided that it does not exceed twenty years. The repayment begins after two years from the date the borrower receives the first payment from the loan, or six months after the completion of the construction, whichever comes first. If the loan is for the purchase of a ready house, the repayment begins six months after the date of its registration. B. 1. If the borrower leaves the university due to reaching the legal age or for health reasons, or if he has spent at least fifteen years of actual service at the university, then he must pay the fund the remaining amount of his owed in monthly installments determined by the committee. 2. If the borrower leaves work at the university for any reason other than those stipulated in Clause (1) of this paragraph, he must pay the remaining

	amount in his debt to the fund in one payment in cash or by deducting it from the amounts owed to him in the savings fund and the end of service gratuity. C. If the borrower fails in any of the cases stipulated in this article to pay the due installments for a period of more than six consecutive months, the house may be sold according to the legal procedures in force without the need for notice. D. If the borrower moves to another official university, his obligations are to be settled to the fund according to instructions issued by the council for this purpose based on the committee's recommendation.
Article (17)	The Board shall issue the necessary instructions for implementation upon the committee's recommendation.

German Jordanian University Employee Incentives from the Fees of Irregular Programs Instructions of 2014 , Issued by the University Council by virtue of Decision No. (29/2013) on 3/12/2013 based on Article (28/B) of the Faculty Regulation No. (96) of 2009 and Article (26/B) of the Employees Regulation No. (95) of 2009

Article (1)	These regulations are titled (Employee Incentives Instructions in the German Jordanian University from the fees of Irregular Programs) and shall come into force from 1/1/2014. As for seconded faculty members or those delegated from other public universities, the provisions shall apply to them from the beginning of the academic year 2013/2014.
Article (2)	Fees for irregular programs for the purposes of implementing these instructions mean the fees charged from all students enrolled in all programs at the university except for students enrolled in the regular program.
Article (3)	The percentage determined by the Board of Trustees from the fees for extraordinary programs that are paid as incentives for university employees shall be reconsidered.
Article (4)	For the purposes of disbursing incentives for university employees from fees for extraordinary programs, the following categories are treated as follows: A- The appointed person at the university is treated as a full-time lecturer in the same way as his counterpart in the rank of faculty members. B- An employee appointed under a detailed contract (basic salary and bonuses) or an employee with a lump sum salary is treated as a counterpart in the grade.
Article (5)	A- In addition to the incentives of those who are obligated to serve at the university until the end of their commitment period, an equivalent amount will be added to the rare specializations allowance stipulated in Article 23 of the faculty system at the German Jordanian University. B- In addition to the incentives of those appointed after August 16 2015, the equivalent of the German Jordanian University allowance shall be

	added, as stipulated in the faculty system and the staff system at the German Jordanian University. C- An amount of (50) dinars shall be added to the incentives of the Executive Secretary.
Article (6)	The following categories are excluded from the incentives mentioned in these provisions: A. Faculty member or full time lecturer upon reaching the age of 70 years old. B. Visiting professor. C. Faculty member that is on unpaid leave or emergency leave during the holiday period. D. Faculty member or full time lecturer hired in the University at the expense of his/her government or any other party. F. Faculty member or full time lecturer appointed in Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School or teaches in it and receives the Talal Abu-Ghazaleh remuneration. G. Fulltime Lecturer hired with a sum salary including allowances except for language teachers. H. Employee of unpaid leave. I. Employee seconded or delegated to work outside the university during the secondment or delegation period. J. Employee hired at the University at the expense of trust funds or projects. K. Employee hired in the University as per a sum salary contract or a special contract. L. Worker in the university designated to work for a monthly allowance.
Article (7)	A. These incentives shall not be calculated within the salary subject to social security or the gross salary on which the calculations of the end

	of service remuneration or the participation in the housing fund are calculated. B. Incentives may not be disbursed by the university and another party at the same time in any way.
Article (8)	A. For the purposes of applying these regulations, the ranks and salaries of faculty members and the ranks and salaries of the administrative employees are approved as they are for December of the fiscal year prior to the year incentives are disbursed. B. Taking into consideration the decision of the board of trustees in this regard, incentives are disbursed at the end of every month of the fiscal year per a decision issued yearly by the university Council. C. Additional incentives other than those stipulated in this article are paid to faculty members carrying out administrative responsibilities, equivalent to 150% of the bonus stipulated in Article (18/A) of the Academic Staff Regulation in force at the university only, and they are excluded from their disbursement, while the additional incentives remain only 50% of the administrative bonus in the following cases: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A faculty member who has not completed the assigned load according to Article (39/B/1) of the Academic Staff Regulation. 2. Subscribe to periodicals (print or electronic) and databases in their various forms, and buy old issues of periodicals in coordination between the library and the concerned parties at the university.

Article (7)	A. With the exception of sources of information which may not be circulated, taking into account the specific circulation period for some information sources and Article (12) of these Instructions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A faculty member may borrow 10 information sources maximum for a period of one semester. The circulation period ends with the end of the semester regardless of the checkout date per source. 2. A University staff may check out 5 information sources maximum for a period of two weeks per source. 3. A graduate student may check out 10 information sources maximum for a period of two weeks per source. 4. An undergraduate student may check out 5 information sources for a period of two weeks per source. B. Every volume of a book containing multiple volumes is considered a source itself for the purposes of circulation. C. The beneficiary may not check out more than one copy of the same source at the same time. D. If an information source is not available in the library, the beneficiary may request the library to obtain it from any of the member libraries of the Center of Excellence for Academic Services for the Libraries of Public Universities in Jordan.
Article (8)	The circulation period for any information source may be renewed only once at the request of the beneficiary if it is not requested by another one, or if the circulation of the requested information source is suspended or unavailable for any reason related to the source or the beneficiary according to the provisions of these Instructions and the decisions issued thereunder.
Article (9)	A. A source of information may be placed on the reserve shelf if its type permits at the request of faculty members or as an initiative by the director. B. Source of information which are on the reserve shelf may be checked out for two hours within the library, pursuant to procedures that organize reserving, using, and circulating such sources within the library issued by the director.

Article (10)	A. Overnight circulation procedures are applied to information sources on the reserve shelf and any other information sources specified by the director every once in a while of that are not normally circulated except banned ones. B. Overnight circulation begins one hour before the end of the library's official working hours on every working day including Saturdays, and ends one and a half hours after the beginning of the working hours of the next work day.
Article (11)	A. Print periodicals may be checked out by faculty members only and according to the overnight circulation regulation. B. According to paragraph (A) of this Article, the total number of items, checked out by a faculty member, should not exceed three issues at the same time, and are counted towards the maximum circulation number permitted for a faculty member. C. References may be circulated to faculty members and graduate students per the overnight circulation regulation, provided that it does not exceed three references per circulation period and are counted towards the maximum number permitted for the beneficiary.
Article (12)	A. If a beneficiary fails to return a source to the library by the deadline of its circulation for more than 3 days, the beneficiary shall be fined 250 fils per day for every day it is overdue including all holidays. The fine shall not exceed 20 JODs per source per semester, and the summer semester is treated as a regular semester for this purpose. The fine is repeated for every following semester or part of it, taking into consideration the maximum fine per semester provided that the fine does not exceed 60 JOD. B. If an information source that is checked out according to the overnight circulation regulation is overdue, the beneficiary is fined 100 fils per hour, including after work hours, up to 20 JOD per source per week.

	C. If an information source is one year overdue, it is considered lost, and the beneficiary is fined pursuant to Article (15) of these Instructions. D. The President may, upon a recommendation from the director, deduct the value of any due fines from the salary or remunerations of University employees, or orders it to be collected as service fees that are due for academic registration for students, or obtaining a clearance. As for subscribers, the fine is deducted from the money they deposit to receive library service. E. If the value of the source or sources exceeds the deposited amount for subscribers, the President may prosecute them if they refuse to pay it voluntarily. F. If the due day to return a source of information falls on an official holiday or a day where library services were held for any emergency circumstances, that day is dropped from the delay time.
Article (13)	If the information source belongs to some different library other than that of the University and was borrowed by the library for a beneficiary, the circulation period is four weeks for faculty members and graduate students and two weeks for others. The borrowed source counts towards the maximum number of sources that a beneficiary may check out at the same time. The provisions of the instructions in effect at the original loaning party shall apply to cases of delay, loss, or damage.
Article (14)	A. The President may partially or totally relieve a beneficiary from the fine resulting from overdue library resources if the beneficiary puts forward reasons which the President may accept. B. The director may cancel a fine resulting from a bug, technical error or sudden malfunction in the circulation system.
Article (15)	A. If a beneficiary continues to delay the return of a source of information he checked out or ignores the library's recall notice for a period of one year, the President may, with the recommendation of the director, apply the suitable paragraph of Article (12) of these Instructions.

	B. Any beneficiary who suffers a fine for delay, damage, or loss may not check out any library resources until he clears this fine.
Article (16)	A. If the beneficiary loses any information source, he is fined three times the value of that source in addition to two JODs for binding costs, in addition to delay fines, which shall continue accumulating until the day the beneficiary settles them and get a clearance. B. If a beneficiary loses one volume of a multi-volume source, he is fined with the current market price of the full set, in addition to two JODs for binding costs for every lost part, and the fines for late return shall continue from its due date until the date the beneficiary notifies the library of its loss. If it is found that the source was not lost, overdue fine applies. C. After paying the fine stipulated in paragraph (b) of this Article, the beneficiary is not entitled to possess the other volumes/parts of the set of which he lost a part. This paragraph applies to original CDs and the books that accompany the CDs as one whole unit. The fine is calculated on the basis of the current market value of the CD and the accompanying books be it the disk that is lost or its accompanying materials. The fine for losing or damaging a copied disk is one JOD per disk. D. If a beneficiary loses a book that the library received as a gift or exchange, the technical committee estimates the price of the book. What is mentioned in paragraphs (A, B, C and D) of this Article applies to the beneficiary. In this case, the fine shall be based on the value estimated by the director. E. The director may accept a substitute, original and good copy for the lost source provided that it matches the bibliographical information or a more recent edition than the lost one, in addition to two JOD as binding costs and the due fine for the delay.
Article (17)	A. If a beneficiary damages any information source on purpose, for example tear pages partially or wholly, write on the margins of the

	source or mark on its lines or underline them, the beneficiary is fined four times the value of the source and its volumes, in addition to two JODs per volume as binding costs. The beneficiary is not entitled to obtain the damaged copy. The director may report him in writing to the President in order to take the proper action against him. B. If the damage to the information source does not exceed the removal of the cover, the beneficiary is fined three JODs (one JOD for restoration and two JODs for rebinding) provided that the damage does not get to the material of the source and that there is no defect or loss resulting from the damage. It is also necessary that it is possible to bind the source without loss of any material.
