

uniKino

programme 1st 2022/2023

Get your free tickets!

Tue, 29th Nov.: Almanya - Willkommen in Deutschland

Cenk, who was born in Germany, doesn't have an easy time at school: As a grandson of one the guest workers who came to Germany after World War II, he feels like he doesn't belong anywhere - a familyshared fate. Cenk spends his holidays in Turkey after his grandpa decides to go there with the whole family. He discovers how the loss of their hometown and their identity affected his whole family.

▶▶▶ Tue, 27th Dec.: Oh Boy

His driver's license is confiscated for drinking and driving, his debit card is blocked and his small change isn't even enough for a normal cup of coffee: young Berlin native Niko wanders aimlessly through the capital. He dropped out of law school years ago without telling his father about it. When his dad finally found out about it, he turned off the money supply. On his odyssey, Niko has some strange and amusing encounters.

Tue, 27th Jan.: Das Leben der Anderen

Five years before the end of the GDR state in East Germany, claims to power in East Berlin are secured with the help of a merciless system of control and surveillance. Lieutenant Colonel Anton Grubitz sends the loyal Stasi Captain Gerd Wiesler to the celebrated playwright Georg Dreyman and his partner, the theater star Christa-Maria Sieland. Wiesler hopes that this will advance his career, but he himself gets caught up in a maelstrom of fear and intrigue.

