Acting Director of International Projects - Oct/ 2025 – Present

Leading the International Projects Office at GJU, with the main goal of strategic oversight, institutional coordination, and ensuring full compliance with donor and university regulations, in support of GJU's internationalization and development objectives.

My role is part of the operation of the International Projects Office, whose main role is to standardize, facilitate, and monitor all international projects to ensure adherence to the relevant guidelines and guarantee the achievement of the projects' goals in line with GJU's strategic objectives.

Key Responsibilities:

- Provide strategic direction and oversight for all international projects to ensure alignment with GJU's institutional goals and funding agencies' requirements.
- Supervise project implementation, financial management, and reporting processes to maintain transparency and compliance with donor and audit standards.
- Lead the development and refinement of policies, procedures, and operational frameworks governing international project management.
- Coordinate proposal development, budgeting, and negotiation of project agreements in collaboration with academic and administrative units.
- Strengthen partnerships and communication with funding organizations, donors, and international stakeholders.
- Guide project teams and build institutional capacity in project management, reporting, and compliance.
- Oversee project closure processes, including deliverable validation and audit facilitation.
