

Scholarships for B.A. Translation students for the Academic Year 2017/2018

The Magdeburg-Stendal University of Applied Sciences has been granting scholarships annually since 2007 for the most meritorious B.A. Translation students out of funds provided by the German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD). The scholarships are granted per year but usually extended for the whole course of the program if the performance of the scholarship holders stays consistently above average. Students can apply for the following types of scholarships.

Sur-place Scholarships are primarily granted to Jordanian nationals and comprise

- a lump sum that covers (approximately) the study fees at the GJU
- a monthly allowance to cover the costs of living during the year in Germany
- a travel allowance for the trip to Germany

Third Country Scholarships are exclusively granted to Non-Jordanian nationals and comprise

- a lump sum that covers (approximately) the study fees at the GJU
- a monthly allowance to cover the costs of living for the stay in Jordan
- a monthly allowance to cover the costs of living for the year in Germany
- a travel allowance for the trip to Germany

Pre-requisites and Application Requirements

In general students who apply for studying in the Translation program can also apply for a scholarship. Applicants should hand in the following documents in one PDF file only:

- Application Form
- CV
- Copy of passport
- Certified Copy of Secondary School Certificate (Tawjihi or equivalent)
- Letter of Motivation in English

The best applicants will be chosen for a scholarship based on the school GPA, the motivation letter, an interview and an English/Arabic proficiency test.
