

الجامعة الألمانية الأردنية
German Jordanian University

German Jordanian University: The Best of Both Worlds

Strengthen the means of implementation and revitalize the global partnership for sustainable development

GJU Signs MOU With the University of Applied Sciences WÜRZBURG-SCHWEINFURT

The President of the German Jordanian University (GJU), Prof. Ala'aldeen Al-Halhouli, and the President of the University of Applied Sciences Würzburg-Schweinfurt, Germany, Prof. Robert Grebner, signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to build a strategic partnership between the two sides and enhance cooperation in the fields of academic programs, international projects, scientific research, entrepreneurship, and innovation.

GJU and the Municipality of Greater Madaba Discussed the Strategic Development Plan of Madaba 2023-2026

The Steering Committee responsible for preparing the strategic development plan for the municipality of Greater Madaba 2023-2026 met at the German Jordanian University, the scientific incubator for this plan, in the presence of the President of GJU, Prof. Ala'aldeen Al-halhouli, mayor of the municipality, Aref Al-Rawajeih, and committee members.

GJU and King Hussein Cancer Foundation discuss Ways of Collaboration

The President of the German Jordanian University (GJU), Prof. Ala'aldeen Alhalhouli, and the Director-General and CEO of the King Hussein Cancer Foundation, Mrs. Nisreen Qatamish, discussed cooperation aspects between the two sides in areas of common interest.

Launching the Green Entrepreneurship Training Program at GJU

The Green Entrepreneurship Training Program was launched in partnership between the German Jordanian University (GJU) and the Business Development Center at the Deanship of Innovation, Technology Transfer and Entrepreneurship (DI-TECH).

The program aims to train a group of students and university graduates with entrepreneurial ideas to enable them to build a green business model for their projects and enhance their abilities to develop their ideas into environmentally friendly projects.

GJU has Participated in the 7th Medical Tourism World Summit

The German Jordanian University (GJU) participated in the 7th Medical Tourism World Summit, which was inaugurated by Health Minister Feras Al Hawari on behalf of His Majesty King Abdullah II.

GJU Discussed Ways of Collaboration with the National Aid Fund

The President of the German Jordanian University (GJU), Prof. Ala'aldeen Alhalhouli, discussed with the Acting Director General of the National Aid Fund, Dr. Barq Al-Damour ways of collaboration between the two sides in the vocational and technical fields.

GJU Inaugurated the Energy Efficiency Training Program

The German Jordanian University (GJU) inaugurated the Energy Efficiency Training Program of the German Energy Academy in Jordan, which comes within the project to support the energy partnership with Jordan, supported by the German Agency for International Cooperation (GIZ).

Symposium in Circular Economy in Food Supply Chain Using Industry 4.0 TOOLS

The Deanship of Innovation, Technology Transfer and Entrepreneurship (DI-TECH) at the German Jordanian University (GJU) in partnership with the Royal Scientific Society (RSS) and University of West England organized a one-day symposium on circular economy in food supply chain using industry 4.0 tools.

Vice Chancellor and Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Protection visits GJU

Following the MENA Europe Future Energy Dialogue (MEFED) in Jordan and an invitation by H.M. King Abdullah II, H.E. German Vice-Chancellor and Federal Minister for Economic Affairs and Climate Protection, Robert Habeck, visited the German Jordanian University (GJU) for talks with faculty, university and industry partners and especially students on the topics of green energy, entrepreneurship and employability in Jordan and Germany.

